Dyslexia from assessment to intervention

29 September 2017 / 09.00 – 16.15 / Cardiff

All Nations Centre, Sachville Avenue, Heath, Cardiff, CF14 3NY

If you're a practitioner that works with children who experience literacy difficulties or dyslexia, you must join our conference. We aim to promote the notion that the assessment of literacy difficulties should lead to a clear pathway to effective and individualised interventions for children or young people.

Topics

- Key areas of debate around dyslexia and literacy difficulties
- Assessment for dyslexia
- Understanding dyslexia and how to deal with it
- Key interventions.

This conference is ideal for those interested in or working with children and young people with literacy difficulties or dyslexia, including educational psychologists, special educational needs co-ordinators (SENCOs) and specialist teachers.

Delegates will leave the conference with a broader understanding of the theoretical underpinnings of the assessment approaches and effective intervention techniques for literacy difficulties.
