Gender Identity Development - An Introduction

Friday 14 September / 09.00 - 16.00 / Leeds

Lambert's Yard, Lower Briggate, Leeds

This all-day conference is equivalent to 5 CPD learning hours and is aimed at professionals working in mental health or pastoral roles/teams who are supporting gender diverse young people. It provides attendees with an overview of the presentation of gender identity issues in adolescents along with possible treatment pathways. It will also give the opportunity for attendees to expand their knowledge of specialist services provided by Leeds Tavistock GIDS clinic with a chance for discussion in relation to dilemmas of working in the area.

Learning Outcomes

- An introduction to the Gender Identity Development Service and their approach, and how other teams can work alongside this specialist service.
- Considering different trajectories and possible treatment pathways when working with gender diverse youth.
- An opportunity to discuss some of the challenges and dilemmas of working with gender diverse youth within the current socio-political context.
