There have been growing levels of awareness of harmful sexual behaviour among CYP. This conference aims to look at an issue that can be very challenging for professionals and families alike.

About the day

It is suitable for those that work with, or have an interest in harmful sexual behaviour among children and young people, both in clinical and non-clinical roles. It offers delegates opportunities to hear from speakers who are key experts in their field. There will also be an opportunity for discussions during the interactive workshops.

Learning Outcomes

- Having an overview of SHB in CYP
- Looking at the evidence for assessment and treatment
- Understanding the impact on the parents with children who have SHB
- Learning about use of mentalizing in work with children and young people who have SHB

Speakers

Professor Kieran McCartan, Professor of Criminology, UWE

'The evidence for assessment and intervention with children and young people who have engaged in harmful sexual behaviour'

Dr Elisabeth Archer, Clinical Psychologist
